Commissioner Best Practices:

1. Before 5:30pm, a quorum of 5 Representatives is needed to meet.
2. Call on time and set alarm reminder five minutes before meeting start.
3. Review documents ahead and be ready to participate.
4. Be in a quiet location and limit background noise.
5. Speak one at a time, slowly and clearly.
6. Mute/Unmute your phone accordingly throughout your participation.
7. When logging on, state your name first. This helps identify who is calling to add as a participant.
8. During the conference call, avoid multitasking to avoid being distracted.
9. No side or private Zoom conversations between commissioners.
10. The Chair can re-assign who leads a discussion for any agenda item.
11. A commissioner will serve as a Timekeeper to assist Chair during discussions.
12. Managing Director takes meeting notes and advises on Brown Act and Better Government Ordinance.
13. Chair asks for questions after presentations. Introduce yourself and briefly state a comment or question.
14. If a commissioner wants to speak on an item, raise your hand (Zoom icon) or put name in chat. Timekeeper will assist Chair to follow that order.
15. Before approving agenda items, Chair will ask to hear your vote by requesting a "Yes," "No" or "Abstain."
16. The Managing Director listens to your vote. When you hear your name, unmute the phone and respond, "Yes," "No" or "Abstain."
17. Do not leave call or put phone on hold. If called, and no response is heard, you'll be considered "absent."
18. Voting on action items: Chair announces proposed decision.
