ADVISORY COUNCIL AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

FOR PUBLICATION ON:
March 2003

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

WOULD YOU LIKE TO SERVE ON THE ADVISORY COUNCIL AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE?

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors is seeking individuals who are interested in serving on the County's Advisory Council Against Domestic Violence (ACAD). The primary purpose of ACAD is to reduce and prevent the overall number of incidents of domestic violence, family violence, and elder abuse in Contra Costa County by promoting a coordinated, integrated, system-wide response. Some of the activities of ACAD include researching best practices and making policy recommendations to the Board of Supervisors. Ideal candidates should demonstrate a knowledge of domestic/family violence and a desire to improve system responses in Contra Costa County. Professionals from disciplines such as health, the faith community, education, or law, which would broaden the diversity of ACAD with their expertise, are encouraged to apply.

Meetings are once a quarter, with a training conference typically constituting the fall quarter meeting. In addition each member is encouraged to participate on one of ACAD's subcommittees. Subcommittee meeting times vary but can be monthly, bi-monthly or quarterly at the discretion of the Subcommittee Chair.

One person from each supervisory district will be selected and will be chosen by the respective Supervisor for that district. An application form may be obtained from the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors by calling (925) 335-1900 or on the web at www.co.contra-costa.ca.us/maddybook/commappliform.pdf. Completed applications should be returned to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Room 106, County Administration Building, 651 Pine Street, Martinez, CA 94553. To learn more about ACAD, please visit their website at <http://acadca.tripod.com/ACADCA> or call Devorah Levine, Staff Liaison to ACAD at (925) 335-1017.
