SAN PABLO -- The Rumrill Sports Park will have a grand opening Sept. 8 with a ribbon-cutting, speeches by dignitaries and recreation activities.

The new 4.5-acre park, built at a former at brownfield 1509 Rumrill Blvd., features three synthetic turf youth playing fields with lighting, 62 parking spaces, a picnic area, tot lot and vendor kiosks that will offer healthy food, according to a news release from the city.

The family- and youth-centric facility will promote "healthy eating, active living" for the San Pablo community, according to the city.

Ceremonies will begin at 3:30 p.m. with a welcome and introduction by San Pablo City Manager Matt Rodriguez.

Speakers will include San Pablo Mayor Kathy Chao Rothberg; Contra Costa County Supervisor John Gioia; the regional administrator of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Jared Blumenfeld; a representative of the California State Parks; and others.
