

Public invited to celebrate El Sobrante Library Mini-Park opening

The celebration will feature volunteer activities, storytime, nature activities, and light refreshments

Public invited to celebrate El Sobrante Library Mini-Park opening
By TOM LOCHNER | tlochner@bayareanewsgroup.com | Bay Area News Group
PUBLISHED: September 7, 2017 at 8:48 am | UPDATED: September 7, 2017 at 9:00 am

EL SOBRANTE — Contra Costa County Supervisor John Gioia will host a ribbon-cutting celebration at the recently completed El Sobrante Library Mini-Park from 12 to 2 p.m. Sept. 9.

The celebration will feature volunteer activities, followed by storytime and nature activities. Light refreshments will be provided.

“We listened to the community in designing and developing this new public space,” Gioia said in an announcement.

The El Sobrante Library is at 4191 Appian Way.

The event is co-sponsored by the El Sobrante Municipal Advisory Council, the Contra Costa County Library Services Department, and the Contra Costa County Public Works Department.