CONTRA COSTA COUNTY COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS PARTNERSHIP (CCP) COMMUNITY ADVISORY BOARD (CAB) (as amended May 11, 2017)

ARTICLE 1

Name of Advisory Committee

The name of this Contra Costa County Community Corrections Partnership (hereinafter referred to as 'CCP') advisory committee shall be the Community Advisory Board on Realignment (hereinafter referred to as 'CAB').

ARTICLE 2

Duties and Powers

Section 1. CAB shall advise the Contra Costa County Community Corrections Partnership (CCP) by providing input on community needs; assessing implementation of the Contra Costa County Reentry Strategic Plan; reviewing data on realignment outcomes; advising the CCP on community engagement strategies; offering recommendations for ongoing realignment planning; advising County agencies regarding programs for implementation in the County; and encouraging outcomes that are consistent with the County's Reentry Strategic Plan.

Section 2. Members of the CAB agree to participate in up to two meetings per month, including a regular monthly meeting of the CAB as described in Article 5, Sections 2 and 3. CAB Members must also make a reasonable effort to attend at least half of the CCP meetings held in Martinez during their term of service.

In addition to attending CAB and CCP meetings, Members must participate in, and help complete projects for, at least one of the CAB ad hoc working groups or committees during their term of service. The CAB has three standing committees- (1) Policy and Budget, (2) Programs and Services, and (3) Outreach and Community Engagement (see committee charters in Attachment 1). All CAB working groups and committees must include at least one CAB Member to act as Chair.

Section 3. It is understood that the Board of Supervisors is the final decision making authority with respect to issues concerning realignment and that CAB shall serve solely in an advisory capacity. CAB may not, as a body, take positions on candidates for any public office.

ARTICLE 3
Membership

Section 1. CAB shall consist of twelve (12) Members, who shall be residents of or work in Contra Costa County, and who shall be appointed by the CCP upon nomination of the CAB. CAB membership should represent the geographic, gender, cultural, and ethnic diversity of the community. In addition, and to the extent possible, CAB membership should proportionally represent the target communities of Contra Costa most impacted by incarceration and reentry.

CAB Members will include representatives of community groups, service providers working with people with criminal backgrounds, members of the criminal justice system that includes advocates for alternative methods such as community courts and restorative justice, subject-matter experts, formerly incarcerated individuals and the families of incarcerated or formerly incarcerated people, crime victims and the families of crime victims, and other interested individuals. The member recruitment and selection process must encourage participation by formerly incarcerated individuals, as well as individuals impacted by crime.

CAB Members should represent a variety of areas of expertise relevant to reentry including physical and mental health, education, employment, housing, family reunification and legal services among others.

Section 2. Members shall serve one (1) year terms that begin January 1 and conclude December 31. A Member may renew their eligibility for CAB membership at the conclusion of each term. No CAB Member may serve for more than three (3) years without first giving up their CAB membership for at least two (2) years. In no event can a CAB Member serve for more than three (3) years in any five (5) consecutive terms.

Although years of service need not be consecutive, any year, or portion thereof, shall constitute a full year for purposes of calculating a Member's years of service, except those years where a Member is appointed to service on the CAB on or after July 1. Each year the CAB will nominate a slate of CAB Members and present this slate of nominees to the CCP for appointment no later than the first CCP meeting of the calendar year in which the nominated CAB slate is expected to serve.

Within the final ninety (90) days of a CAB Member's term of service, an eligible Member may renew their eligibility for CAB membership by verbal notice, during any regular or specially noticed CAB meeting, of the Member's intent to continue service on the CAB if appointed to an additional term by the CCP, and that the Member still lives or works in Contra Costa County; or may renew their eligibility by written notice of the same delivered to the CAB Chair, CAB Vice Chair, or Office of Reentry and Justice (hereinafter referred to as 'ORJ') within the same ninety (90) day time period.

Section 3. To fill a midterm CAB Member vacancy with a newly nominated individual, a 2/3 vote of a quorum of CAB Members during any regular or specially noticed CAB meeting is required before presenting the newly nominated individual to the CCP for appointment. A vote for the nomination of a person to fill a midterm CAB Member vacancy can be taken on the motion of any CAB Member. Following CAB approval, the newly nominated individual shall be presented to the CCP for appointment at the next regularly scheduled CCP meeting.

In filling any vacancy, CAB shall be guided by the criteria set forth in Article 3, Section 1 to ensure the balance of countywide representation and areas of expertise are maintained wherever possible. Whenever practicable, for any vacancy occurring within the first thirty (30) days of CCP appointing the annual CAB slate, individuals nominated for the vacancy should come from the most recent pool of CAB membership applicants.

Section 4. CAB Members are required to attend all regularly scheduled meetings. Members may miss up to three (3) regular meetings for any reason. Members who are absent from four (4) regular meetings will automatically be removed from CAB.

Any individual removed from the CAB under this section, or through the provisions of Article 3, Section 5, is eligible to pursue future membership on the CAB in the usual manner. Only individuals removed from the CAB through the provisions of Article 3, Section 6 will be deemed ineligible for future CAB membership.

Section 5. A Member may resign from any CAB appointment, including CAB membership, by written notice delivered to the CAB Chair, CAB Vice-Chair or ORJ.

Section 6. The CAB may remove any Member from any appointment, including CAB membership, for actions detrimental to the CAB or the Contra Costa County Reentry Strategic Plan by an approval of a removal action by 2/3 vote of a quorum of CAB Members during any regular or specially noticed CAB meeting. Before any vote on a removal action can be taken, there must be a motion that clearly states a Member's alleged detrimental actions, and how these actions qualify the Member for removal under the provisions of this Section.

ARTICLE 4 Officers

Section 1. The officers of CAB shall be the Chair, Vice-Chair, and Secretary. Each Member's status as an officer ends with their annual term of membership unless the Member renews their status as an officer along with their CAB membership in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, Section 2. Any action to remove a Member's officer status must occur in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, Section 6.

Section 2. The CAB Chair shall be responsible for conducting CAB meetings, developing and distributing agendas in collaboration with the ORJ, and for the convening of any necessary working groups or ad hoc committees.

Additionally, the CAB Chair shall have the power of appointment as required to accomplish CAB business. This power shall include the sole discretion to appoint and remove a Member to any role or duty specifically assigned to the CAB Chair, or their designee. Any other appointment by the Chair will be ineffective after ninety (90) days without subsequent action by the CAB, during any regular or specially noticed CAB meeting, approving the appointment.

The CAB Chair is also responsible for ensuring the duties of the Secretary are carried out in the Secretary's absence, and for providing necessary status reports concerning CAB business to the CCP, Contra Costa Board of Supervisors, the subcommittees of either body, and to the general public.

Section 3. The CAB Vice-Chair shall act for the Chair in his or her absence. Section 4. The CAB Secretary shall record, produce and provide for the availability and distribution of minutes for each regular and specially noticed CAB meeting. The Secretary shall also be responsible for maintaining CAB attendance records and email lists controlled by CAB and the CAB online calendar.

Section 5. The first order of CAB business for any meeting where there is an officer vacancy shall be an attempt to fill the vacancy by first selecting a Chair, then a Vice-Chair, and finally a Secretary. It shall be the duty of the CAB Chair to facilitate this process, with assistance from the ORJ as necessary.

Section 6. Voting for any officer position must occur during a regular or specially noticed CAB meeting. A Member is properly nominated for voting to an officer position when, before the first vote of a meeting for the position, any other Member provides either a verbal nomination or a second of the Member's verbal self-nomination.

When voting for an officer, all Members present shall have exactly one vote. Only votes for a properly nominated Member will be counted, and all other votes will be treated as an abstention. To be appointed to a CAB officer position, a properly nominated Member must obtain the most votes in a single round of voting. If no Member receives the votes required for appointment, a second vote shall be taken where only Members who have received the largest number of votes in the previous round of voting will continue to be recognized as properly nominated.

After at least two unsuccessful votes for an officer, the CAB Chair may call for the subsequent vote to be by lot consisting of exactly 5 Members who are not properly nominated for the officer position. At any time proper to call for voting by lot for an officer position, or at any time no Member is properly nominated for an officer position, the CAB Chair may call for an immediate vote on their own motion to suspend further voting on the officer position for the remainder of the current meeting. This motion to suspend shall not require a second, but otherwise shall proceed as any other general CAB action.
