Contra Costa Television to Broadcast Local Election Preview

(Martinez, CA) – Contra Costa County voters can now watch local “Election Preview”. This programming offers Contra Costa voters a chance to be informed about candidates before casting their ballots. Moderators for the Previews are Claudine Wong from KTVU and Bob Butler from KCBS.

“Contra Costa Television is a public service of the Board of Supervisors, committed to providing programming on issues of countywide interest,” said Board Chair, Supervisor Karen Mitchoff. “The Election Preview offers county residents a non-partisan discussion for our local elections. You can tune in and learn more about candidates and participate in the voting process, so that your voice is heard.”

The voter education forums available, include the following:

- California State Assembly 11 Candidate Forum
- Contra Costa County Assessor Candidate Forum
- Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors District 1 Candidate Forum
- Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors District 4 Candidate Forum
- Contra Costa County Clerk-Recorder Candidate Forum
- Contra Costa County District Attorney Candidate Forum
- Contra Costa County Sheriff Candidate Forum

Election Preview’s pre-recorded discussions will air on Contra Costa Television (CCTV) channels: Comcast 27, Astound 32, and AT&T U-verse 99. For dates and times, see the TV schedule: <http://www.contracosta.ca.gov/7626>. The Election Preview videos will also be available online at Contra Costa Television YouTube channel.

Contra Costa County Elections Division is partnering with the County’s Office of Communications & Media, the League of Women Voters of Diablo Valley, and the League of Women Voters of West Contra Costa.

County Clerk-Recorder and Registrar Debi Cooper commented, “Providing Contra Costa County residents with unbiased and transparent information about elections is an integral part of the work we do at the Elections Division. We have the privilege of partnering with the League of Women Voters and CCTV to bring you this valuable information. You can check our website cocovote.us for the most up-to-date and accurate information on local elections.”

All eligible registered Contra Costa voters will receive a Vote by Mail Ballot for the June 7th Primary Election. County Voter Information Guides will be mailed out to voters by May 2nd and ballots mailed before May 9th. You can register or check your registration at registertovote.ca.gov. Voters can track their ballots at wheresmyballot.sos.ca.gov.
