Veterans' Voices Show to Talk with Chaplains

On Monday, October 10th, at 7 pm (PDT), the Veterans' Voices show will host a LIVE panel of military chaplains. The "Chaplains" show will take an in-depth look at the service and experiences of military chaplains in their own words. Guests will include chaplains Paul R. Sauer and Carl Rhoads and representatives from the Military Chaplains Association, Razz Waff and Retired Brigadier General, Chaplain Robert Pleczowski.

Viewers can share their own experiences or ask a question by calling the program at 925-313-1170. They can also use the phone number to record a message for the panel any time before the show, as well as leave questions and comments at facebook.com/veteransvoices1 or email to veteransvoices@contracostatv.org before or during the live television show.

The Veterans' Voices program is broadcasted live on Contra Costa Television (CCTV) on the second Monday of every month at 7 pm. It can be seen live online at facebook.com/veteransvoices1. You can find an archive of past shows and show resources at <https://contracosta.ca.gov/5163/Veterans-Voices> or on our YouTube channel, Veterans' Voices of Contra Costa. The show is re-run multiple times on CCTV on Comcast Channel 27, Astound Channels 32 and 1027, and AT&T U-Verse Channel 99.

Join us as we host this conversation that will provide a rare look at the lives and service of chaplains, the spiritual guides for those who serve.
