Veterans' Voices Show to Celebrate Black History Month

On Monday, February 13, at 7 pm (PST) the Veterans' Voices show will host a live panel of Veterans to discuss important events in Black military history. The show will explore the journey of Black servicemen and women in the American military from the viewpoint of historians and Veterans. Guests will include Leon Watkins of The Walking Ghosts of Black History and Bobby McDonald of the Buffalo Soldiers 9th & 10th Cavalry Association.

Viewers can share their own experiences or ask a question by calling the program at 925-313-1170. They can also use the phone number to record a message for the panel any time prior to the show. Leave questions and comments at facebook.com/veteransvoices1 or email veteransvoices@contracostatv.org prior to or during the live television show.

The Veterans' Voices program is broadcasted live on Contra Costa Television (CCTV) on the second Monday of every month at 7 pm. It can be seen live online at facebook.com/veteransvoices1. You can find an archive of past shows and show resources at <https://contracosta.ca.gov/5163/Veterans-Voices> or on our YouTube channel Veterans' Voices of Contra Costa. The show is re-run multiple times on CCTV on Comcast Channel 27, Astound Channels 32 and 1027, and AT&T U-Verse Channel 99.

Join us as we explore some historic milestone events and hear the opinions of Veterans as we celebrate Black History Month.
